CRYSTAL CITY

Biggest Fire and Ten Cent Amusement Place in the West

Nothing but unfavorable weather seems to interfere with the success at Crystal City. A great throng of people are nightly in attendance. New attractions are being added each week. Those who are acquainted with the large amusement places, will find Crystal City compares favorably with the best. Many visitors from far and near have attended during the week and expressed themselves as being well pleased. All arrangements are being made for the balloon ascension and as soon as a sufficient amount of gas can be had to inflate, the ascension will be made. Mrs. C. L. Shivers has promised to make the flight with Capt. Berry.

More Attractive Coming
The Midgets, who have furnished fun and special features at Forest Park Highlands, will be at Crystal City. Watch for the date. When seen by an Argus reporter, Dr. B. G. Dr. Scarborough is a graduate of Oberlin and has been an instructor in Greek and Latin at the institution for many years up to 1907, when he was elected president, succeeding Bishop J. H. Jones. He is the author of Greek and Latin textbooks used for a time in Yale and Harvard.

Original Ostende Boat Excursion Monday, July 19

The "Original Ostende" Club will make its 1915 appearance on Monday, July 19 on the Steamer Gray Eagle. There will be a new passenger for those who shall have the good fortune to attend.

It is a surprise for the patrons of the occasion as nothing of the kind has ever been performed in the history of St. Louis. So, how can you afford to miss this grand occasion without regretting it?

This surprise will be what?

ATTORNEY W. R. HILL

Assistant City Counselor

The appointment of Attorney Hill to the position of Assistant City Counselor, by Hon. Chas. H. Dumes, the present City Councilman, comes as no great surprise so far as the Negro is concerned. Because in the first place Mayor Kiel promised his support in the appointment of a Negro to the office, and Mr. Dumes said he would appoint a Negro assistant, and he has kept his promise.

Mr. Hill's appointment meets the general approval of the people. Since coming to this city several years ago, Mr. Hill has built a lucrative practice in his profession as a lawyer, and enjoys the confidence and respect of the best people in the city.

As assistant city counselor, Mr. Hill will be in a position to speak for the Negro in the application of the laws of the city. He is a man of ability and is thoroughly prepared to fill the office with credit, not only to himself, but to the race.

PORO COLLEGE HOLDS OPEN HOUSE JULY 5

Entertains Citizens and Tri-County Central Visitors. Proprietors to Make Eastern Tour. Surprised Testimonial Planned.

During the past week, citizens generally have been attracted by the brilliant electric Welcome sign over the entrance to the "Poro College," which truly bespeaks the genuine hospitality of the proprietors, Prof. and Mrs. A. E. Malone. For a number of years this splendid business establishment, which was begun by Mrs. A. M. Pope-Turnbo, on 22nd and Market Streets, has stood for the public good. It has not only served the public in a wholesome social way, but a large number of girls and others have been given employment, and the personal appearance of Negro women of this and other communities has been greatly improved by its scientific and cultural treatment in the growth of the hair.

Poro College has dignified the hair dressing business, and influenced the establishment of all the noted hair dressing parlors for Negroes throughout the country. Most of the leading proprietors received their first experience and training under Mrs. Pope-Turnbo and her sister. Any number of young women owe their introduction into the business world to the training received at Poro College. The Poro system is favorably known in every section of the United States and the benefits and hospitality of the Poro College are as widely known.

Hardly a week passes but that some social function, often brilliant, is held by Prof. and Mrs. Malone at the College for the entertainment of citizens and out-of-town guests. The many social occasions of the past week in honor of Miss V. S. Love, of Madagascari, Alabama, closed with a grand open house welcome to citizens and friends, including the Tri-County Central A. M. E. Church visitors, Monday, July 5. On the occasion of their guests, Prof. and Mrs. Malone will leave the city Thursday for an Eastern tour. A committee of 100 ladies, representing the institutions of the city, will plan to tender these high-hearted, intelligent, cultured and affable proprietors of the Poro College a surprise testimonial on their return home. All citizens will be invited to participate out of real appreciation for their splendid townsmen. This committee of ladies, with whom the public will be asked to co-operate for the success of this undertaking, will be published a little later.

"PORO" COLLEGE FESTIVITIES

The amusements at "Poro" College, Friday and Monday evenings, for the visitors and students and all those who chanced to stop in, were the exhibition of the stereoscopic views of the life of Lincoln and moving pictures of a barbarous nature. Four years previous to the marriage of Mr. Malone, he traveled extensively with biblical works, illustrating same with impressive views from the Bible, hence with this experience it is with interest he aids in adding to the pleasure of "Poro" College entertainment.

Soon will be completed the moving pictures of the exterior and interior of "Poro" College.

AN OPEN LETTER

"We, a part of a great body of Americans, desiring to enjoy the Liberty that is granted to every law-abiding individual, do appeal to every American to whom this circular may come, trusting that he will take a manly stand on the side of Justice, and use his influence and voice against every measure that is brought forward, or may come up at any future time, that shall cause the smallest part of liberty to be taken from any of the American Citizens. That our peace is being disturbed and our liberty threatened is apparent by the unlawful measures that are being agitated by a part of our fellow-citizens, by which they hope to have us restricted in our rights as American Citizens to buy and enjoy real estate in this City wherever it is offered for sale. That this is an unlawful and unjust discrimination is admitted by every American who has the slightest knowledge of right and wrong, and is not blinded by a foolish prejudice.

"Then is it not a crime to legislate for or against any individual or body of individuals simply because of the color of the skin or texture of the hair? Colored men are Citizens by having measured up to every just requirement laid down by the Constitution, or required by laws of Nation, State or City.

"Colored men are not cowards, as can be proven by the records of the War and Navy Departments of our National Government, from 1776 to this day.

"And should our President at any time call for men to defend our Nation's honor, black men will respond to his call as they did to Lincoln and McKinley.

"Then why take away from Black men the right to buy and enjoy that Home that he is able to pay for and his white fellow-citizen is willing to sell to him or anyone else?

"One individual becomes superior to another only when he has a higher sense of right and justice, and the moral courage to put those virtues into practice.

"We therefore appeal to every man and woman who may read this that he rise above these petty things of life and work hand in hand with his fellow-man to make this, our country, the land of the 'brave and free,' not free for a 'group' of citizens, but free for all. While the world is at war, let us continue to show that this is, in truth, the land of Peace, Liberty and Justice, ever keeping in mind that if any man or woman lend his influence, either active or passive, in aid of any measure that will deprive any American citizen of his liberty and rights, he makes himself unworthy of the great name he bears and becomes 'Un-American.' The following Axioms are admitted by all men, and practiced by every right-thinking man:

"1. Social equality is a free gift from one individual to another; legislation cannot give it or take it away, hence let us not fear that.

"2. Real estate is not depreciated by the buyer, but by the seller's loss of money.

"3. Real estate increases in value as a demand is made for it.

"4. The many homes that are for sale in St. Louis, in districts that are exclusively 'white,' shows that there is a decrease in value somewhere, and as no colored man is or has been a resident in such districts, the depreciation is caused by some things other than the presence of a Negro in the block. No demand, no value.

"5. Finally, as there is no moral, social, civic or intellectual need of segregation, any individual who works for it by word, or deed, becomes 'Un-American.'

We are Yours for Peace, Liberty and Justice,
"THE COLORED MEN'S IMPROVEMENT LEAGUE OF SOUTH ST. LOUIS,

"Headquarters, 910 Iron St."

We reproduce this letter, from a group of men who are earnest and sincere, coming as it does at a time when the question of segregation is being agitated by the "un-American."

The individual churches are like the cities and towns. The denominations are like the states. Both churches and denominations are proud of their independence, and maintain their self-government. Without parting with either of these rights they might easily come together in some form of federal union, which would enable them to converge and concentrate their separate influence into a unit of power for defense or attack.

Against such a federation, what evil could stand?

What It Costs
Not to Be a
ChristianBy REV. HOWARD W. POPE
Superintendent of Men, Moody Bible Institute of Chicago

TEXT—For what shall it profit a man if he shall gain the whole world and lose his own soul—Mark 8:36.

People sometimes refuse Christ because of the sacrifice involved. It costs too much, and they are not willing to pay the price. Yes, it does cost something to be a Christian, but it costs far more not to be a Christian. Let us see what it costs to live and die without Christ.

1. Not to be a Christian costs the sacrifice of peace. "Great peace have they which love the law," "Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace whose mind is stayed on thee." This is the portion of the Christian. He has peace with God, and the peace of God, and the God of peace bestows the Christless soul knows nothing of this, for "there is no peace, saith my God, in the wicked." He knows that he is disobeying God, and he is all the time fearful. "Who through fear of death were all their lifetimes subject to bondage."

Besides, he is conscious of an unseen force which is continually working against him. "The way of the transgressor is hard," we are told. Yes, God makes it hard for the sinner may weary of it, and turn his feet into the path of righteousness. "Behold I will hedge up thy way with thorns, and I will make a wall against thee."

As surely as all things work together for good to them that love God, so surely does God work against the sinner. The same love which prompts him to send blessings to the righteous, leads him to send hindrances and warnings to the sinner. The sinner calls it bad luck, but he suspects that it is something more, even the deliberate purpose of God.

2. Not to be a Christian costs the sacrifice of the highest joy. I do not say that the Christian man will have no joy. He may know the joy of health, and friendship, and domestic life; he may acquire money, and power, and fame. But there are nobler joys than those which he loses. He cannot know the joy of sin forgiven, or the comfort and companionship of the Holy Spirit, or the joy of becoming like Jesus Christ.

It is God's purpose that all his children shall be joyful—full of joy. "These things have I spoken unto you that my joy may be full." How different the feeling of the Christian soul. A visitor who was calling on the great Bismarck expressed the hope that he might live many days, and this was Bismarck's reply: "There is only one happy day left for me. It is the one on which I shall not wake up again."

3. Not to be a Christian costs the sacrifice of his highest success in life. Everyone wishes to make the most of himself, but this is impossible unless he yields his life to Christ. God has a plan for every life, and this plan alone assures his highest success. Does not God know what is for the creature's good better than his creature himself? It is folly to think that one can live in God's world and achieve success, and yet disobey the laws of God.

Remember that money and popularity and power do not constitute success. One may have all these and yet be a consummate failure. The true object of life is to know God's will and do it, and the Christian soul misses that completely.

4. Not to be a Christian costs the loss of heaven. The penalty of having one's own way here, is to be consigned hereafter to a place where everyone has his own way, which is hell. That is what makes it hell. Heaven is a place where one has his own way, but all delight to do God's will. That is what makes it heaven. The Christless soul has no hope of heaven, and even if he had, he could not enjoy it. Heaven would be hell to one who is not heavenly minded, to one who does not love Jesus, and who does not love sin.

The Christless soul must prepare in part forever from all his dear ones who have chosen Christ; his mother who taught him to pray, his faithful wife, his children whose little hands have long been beckoning to woo him home in heaven. When Dwight L. Moody died he looked up and said, "Is this death? If so, it is glorious. Earth is receding, heaven is opening. God is calling me." Instead of this welcome, the Christless soul will hear the sad words, "Depart from me."

Yes, it does cost something to be a Christian. It may cost you the sacrifice of some pleasure, some companionship, some money, but not to be a Christian will cost you the loss of peace, joy, and real success. It will cost you the loss of your soul. It will cost you heaven.

"What shall it profit a man if he gain the world and lose his own soul?"

THE ST. LOUIS "PORO" COLLEGE FORCE

The above group represents the "PORO" College force of this city, with the exception of five, who were absent.

1. City Agents—Located in various parts of St. Louis and suburbs, and who are doing so much to spread the great work of "PORO" System, at their home and by appointment.

2. Matrons and Shipping Force—Women, who have the oversight of the building and grounds and men who handle enormous shipments of in-bound and out-bound stock.

3. The Office Force—Girls who handle the correspondence of more than three thousand representatives.

4. The Instructors and Mail Force—The young ladies in the Instructing and Operating Departments are so thorough in the scientific and sanitary training of scalp and hair treatment that by their assistance persons entering the College receive instructions in detail. Those who take care of the mailing are familiar with maps of the Far East Guide directing the mail to all parts of this and foreign countries.

This institution has done, and is doing, a great work in this city and throughout the country. Looking back fifteen years, the date it was founded, there was not a school of its kind in existence; it is the center from which have sprung thousands of branches; it is the source from which so many hundreds of girls and women have forged their way to the heights so proudly attained; its principles, its system and its training are the cardinal points which have lent so much in making this school famous.

The "PORO" System is one which appeals to each individual, for every man and woman, boy and girl, is interested in the sanitary condition of his or her scalp and hair, and the most effective way by which this can be done is the scientific manner as is found alone in this system.

In Mrs. A. M. Pope-Turner-Malone, the founder, we have a genius; one who can build a business of such magnitude must do so at a sacrifice. She has given to her women the only systematic method of scalp and hair treatment, protecting them by a system of contracts and Diplomas, and giving to the numberless patrons the results they have spent so much time and money in search of.

She is accomplishing her one chief aim—to push her girls and women higher. In her unassuming manner, she is easily the one woman in her profession.

List of names of persons receiving Diplomas from "PORO" College in July.—Mrs. Lillie Jackson, Chicago, Ill.; Mrs. Janice Smith, Nashville, Tenn.; Mrs. Anna E. Pennington, Nashville, Tenn.; Mrs. Anna Thomas, Louisville, Ky.; Miss Bertie Campbell, Humboldt, Tenn.; Miss Blanche Hudson, Southland, Ark.; Miss Julia Gordon, St. Louis, Mo.; Mrs. Louise Washington, Columbia, Tenn.; and Miss Viola Love, of Mopt. Gentry, Ark., are taking a Post Course.

New Automobile Tailoring And Cleaning Service

Chas. Q. Clark, formerly of Clark and Smith, has opened a tailoring shop at 3406 La Salle St. Mr. Clark has purchased a delivery automobile.
He plans to give the people the quick and reliable service they demand and says, "Don't pack your clothes to a tailor, use your phone;
he will call for your work and deliver it in double quick time." Mr. Clark has had 16 years' experience in the tailoring business, and is well qualified to give the best satisfaction.
Besides high-grade tailoring, he is cleaning, pressing and repairing all garments, carpets and draperies. He also does a rental business in full dress suits. The change Mr. Clark has made enables him to give prices at a third less than formerly. It is no longer necessary to worry. No matter what part of the city you live in, if you wish tailoring, cleaning or pressing work, or your guests are in need of service, phone Grand 835M or Victor 3525X and have an automobile call for your work.

BASE Mount Olives vs Saint Louis Giants BASE

BALL

KUEBLER'S PARK
6100 N. Broadway

Sunday, July 11

GAME CALLED
AT 3 P. M.

ATHLETICS AND AMUSEMENTS

BASEBALL

The Mount Olives, a strong Illinois team, will play the Giants at Kuebler's Park, Sunday. The team is said to be one of the best semi-professional clubs in the country. Jasper, formerly of the White Sox, will be on the mound for the visitors. The success of the Giants has been the cause of much anxiety among white baseball promoters. They want Charlie Mills' champions beaten and the Mount Olives are expected to turn the trick.

It is the candid opinion of close observers of the game that the Giants are really the champions of Negro baseball. The three games played with the Leland Giants of Chicago were unexpectedly one sided, the Giants winning 17 to 2, 12 to 4, and 17 to 3. The biggest crowd of the season was Monday's game.

We believe Mr. Mills has the best team in St. Louis, regardless of the league, and hope that before the snow flies his aggregation of stars will get a chance to prove it.

The Giants' hospital is growing larger every day. "Spec" Webster is laid up with a badly lacerated hand. Bennett is suffering from a wrenched side and sprained ankle. Kid Carey has further weakened an already injured ankle and is laid up. In spite of this handicap, the team is ready to give battle to the best the country produces.

Manager Charlie Mills is Col. Mills, on Gen. Butler's staff of the Knights of Pythias, and Assistant Commissary General. He will have charge of the commissary car when the Pythians go to Columbus, O., and those who make the trip can be assured of the best service the market affords. The Giants will also make the trip and will meet the best teams the East can offer. The Pythians will travel on a special train over the B. & O., Southwestern, leaving here at 11 p. m., Aug. 14.

WALTON BLUES

This is one of the fastest amateur teams now playing in the city. Having lost only one game out of eight, Sunday, July 4, they defeated the Missouri Blues, score of 11 to 4, and on July 5, easily defeated the Clayton Blues, 17 to 2.

The latest good has it that next season will find Butler May, "String Beans," starring a road production. John Larkin at the head of "A Trip to Africa," Will Volney in a revival of "The Oyster Man" and Whitney and Tunt, with the Smart Set Company, in a new vehicle, entitled, "George Washington Bullion Abroad."

PENDLETON AIRDOME HAVING SUCCESS

The Pendleton Airdome, at Fairfax and Pendleton, has been having a big success under the management of Henry Smith. Mr. Smith expresses much gratitude to the many hundreds of patrons who are showing appreciation of his efforts to furnish high-grade pictures, and states that the commodious and comfortable new winter theater he plans will compare favorably with any in the city. He is now running a serial picture every Saturday, entitled, "The Master Key."

PINE STREET PLAYGROUND SERVING GREAT NEED

One of the most interesting sights around St. Louis is the playground for Colored children on Twenty-third and Pine Streets. This playground is about 100 feet square, and is equipped with swings, slides and rings for the healthy development of the children of the neighborhood. Almost any time there can be seen from 75 to 100 boys and girls there, and often there are as many as 125 there at one time. The task of directing the pleasures of this large number of youngsters is left to Elmer A. Burgess, a young man thoroughly trained for this kind of work and one who seems to manifest a genuine interest in it. He is assisted in the morning by Miss Helen E. McVortter, and in the afternoon by Miss Nellie Taylor. These lady assistants look after the girls and superintend their games.

As Argus reporter, who visited the grounds, was shown over the place by Mr. Burgess, the director. He took pains to explain every feature of the work, stating that as a rule the ground was very largely attended and the work maintained as much as possible. "We make every effort to keep the boys and girls separate as far as it is possible," he said. "This set of work is divided into two, the boys and those on the right for the girls. The boys are beginning to play some real ball. I have a system by which I can keep an accurate record of each ball batter's average as well as his general ability as a player. They have already played two games with Columbus Square, one of which the boys have won. We probably will play a double header Saturday."

When one considers the many sidedness of this work the various games to be introduced and kept going in a systematic manner, and also the fact that some playgrounds of the city are provided with twice as many ball assistants as this one, it can readily be seen that this work is a task worthy of the praises of us all.

ALL-FEMALE SHOW AT BOOKER WASHINGTON PLEASING BIG AUDIENCES

The all-female show at the Booker Washington Theater this week is not only a novelty, but a combination of good talent with entertaining qualities. Seven ladies comprise the bill and offer a program with plenty of variety, ranging from ragtime and comedy to the dramatic and dramatic.

Edna Barrett, a dainty little singer with a well developed voice, opens the program. Her three song numbers, "Over the Hills to Mary," "There's a Little Spark of Love Still Burning," and "In the Heart of the City," are all well sung. Her "Bear Story" monologue is good. She is being generously applauded.

The Abyssinian Trio, as usual, is the artistic triumph of the show. These excellent singers are well-known favorites here. Their voices and perfect harmony always thrill their hearers with ecstasy. This week they are singing "Opera Bellesque," "Annie Laurie," "Arrived at Love Song," by Misses Gertrude Jones and Olga Ellison, and repeating, by request, "Moon Song," led by Miss I. O. Bell. The latter is a beautiful scenic effect by the trio. They are making a tremendous hit.

Eloise Johnson, vivacious as ever, one of the most artistic little actresses on the stage, is having her usual success, pleasing the patrons. Miss Johnson is singing, "The Pigeon Walk," "All For the Love of a Girl," "How Long Last Love," and "Fatima Brown." The latter is accompanied by a descriptive dance and is a decided hit.

The Griffin Sisters close the show. They open with a dialogue, followed by a few eccentricities by Miss Emma. The "Italian Waltz" by Miss Mabel and "Heating Blues" by Emma are both big numbers. The latter is the present "Amazon Land" and close with an Indian song with dance. They show a wealth of elaborate costumes, have good voices, and score a hit with every action.

The Griffin sisters are intelligent and talented theatrical people. They are recognized business qualifications. They have traveled all over the country studying the Colored vaudeville conditions.

They are accomplishing much in the interest of Colored performers and have plans that will mature soon, which may be of much benefit to their footlight friends as well as the general public.
